

LoVEFest boasts wine, food, music, auctions

May 31, 2007—Thousand Oaks, California—Lily of the Valley Endeavor will host its third annual LoVEFest Concert from 4 to 8 p.m. Sun., June 24 at Gardens of the World, 2001 E. Thousand Oaks Blvd., Thousand Oaks.

The event will include live music, wine tasting, food from local restaurants, and live and silent auctions. Performing at the concert will be flamenco guitarist Benise, Tin Drum, and jazz artists Tim Heintz and Friends.

Advance tickets are $50 and can be purchased from www.lilyvalleyusa.org. Tickets will be $55 at the door; however, space is limited and advance purchase is recommended.

Proceeds will benefit the organization's Children's Village in Makaphuto, South Africa, which provides care, housing, food, medication and education to children who have been affected by or infected with HIV/AIDS.

For more information or sponsorship opportunities, call Christl Karlsson at (805) 402-4830.